Leadership Seminar on Missing & Exploited Children

This free seminar will familiarize leaders in public safety with current issues related to missing and sexually exploited children. Participants will learn about effective policies and practices, emerging trends, and resources for responding to and investigating these unique cases.

Designed for leaders in law enforcement agencies and emergency communications centers, as well as state clearinghouse managers, this two-and-one-half day seminar covers topics including:

- Missing Children's Special Programs
- Emerging Trends in Exploited Child Cases
- Child Sex Trafficking
- Multi-Disciplinary Teams
- Legal Considerations
- Search Techniques
- Media Relations
- Federal Resources
- Family and Survivor Support
- Responder Resilience and Wellness
- Community Action Planning
- Model Policies

Agency benefits:

- ✓ Showcase commitment to protecting children through expert leadership training, resource management, and child-focused service delivery.
- ✓ Build public confidence in your agency's ability to effectively and efficiently meet community priorities on child safety.
- ✓ Increase community satisfaction by implementing model policies and standards for responding to missing and exploited child incidents.
- ✓ Improve victim services through collaboration with community organizations that address challenges resulting from missing and sexually exploited children cases.
