

You are not alone.

The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children® (NCMEC) is here for you. We work with families like yours who have experienced exploitation, and we can help you get through this.

There are many resources available for you, including those at NCMEC.

Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM):

Images or videos of child sexual abuse, child sex trafficking, online enticement, sextortion, and sexting.

Support for CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE MATERIAL
Survivors &
Their Families

We have asked the victim assistance professional, law enforcement agent, or nonprofit representative sharing this brochure with you to add their business card or contact information for your future reference.

Attach Business Card

Victim Assistance Professional Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Investigator Name: _____

Phone Number: _____

Scan code to access resources.

MissingKids.org/csam-resources

This project was supported by Grant #2019-MU-MU-K012 awarded by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this publication are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of Justice. CyberTipline® and National Center for Missing & Exploited Children® are registered trademarks of the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children.

NCMEC RESOURCES

Counseling Support

Finding the right counselor can be difficult. NCMEC is a good first step for support and counseling referrals in your area.

Peer Support

You may feel isolated and alone. Our Team HOPE program connects families and survivors to others who have had similar experiences. These trained volunteers offer peer support, coping skills, and compassion.

Removing Material

Knowing abusive imagery exists of you can be unsettling. Our CyberTipline® works with major tech companies to help remove exploitation images/videos or harassing comments. As technology advances, so do our techniques.

Legal Assistance

Understanding the legal system is hard to do alone. We can help you find a lawyer who can assist with legal issues, such as termination of parental rights, name changes, victim notification, victim impact statements, restitution, and more.

For help, contact us.

familysupport@ncmec.org
1-877-446-2632 (ext. 6117)
MissingKids.org/csam-resources

You have rights.

Ask law enforcement or your victim assistance professional.

VICTIM NOTIFICATION

Different rights may apply in federal and state cases. If images or videos are discovered in a federal case, you may be contacted about your right to receive notifications on status updates in current or future cases.

Your victim assistance professional may discuss these notification preferences with you on behalf of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENTS

You have the right to tell the court how this crime impacted your life through a victim impact statement. Your victim assistance professional can explain more about victim impact statements in your case.

You may be asked to write different types of impact statements. It can be helpful to have your friends, family, victim assistance professional, therapist, or lawyer support you while writing this.

Notification options vary. You can...

choose to be notified

choose not to be notified

choose a lawyer to receive your notices

change your notification preferences at any time

RESTITUTION

If the abusive images or videos are shared online, you may have the right to seek monetary restitution from people who take, share, or possess these images or videos. This process can be complex and confusing. A lawyer experienced in representing crime victims can be helpful, and NCMEC can help you find one.

Hope is why we're here.